Chapter 1

The Roots of a King

From the very beginning, heaven proclaimed a truth that will never change:

“Jesus Christ is King of kings and Lord of lords.”
(Revelation 19:16)

He is the King above every king, the Lord above every ruler, and His kingdom has no end. But unlike earthly kings who suddenly appear in power, God chose a different way to reveal His Son.

This great King was born into a family. He entered our world through a humble stable, into the arms of a young mother, and into a family line carefully prepared across centuries.

Jesus' story as King did not begin in Bethlehem—it began in the heart of God and was written through generations long before His birth.

From Adam to Abraham

Let's go all the way back to the very beginning—to Adam, the very first man. God formed Adam from the dust of the earth and gave him life with His own breath. From Adam came Seth, and after many, many years, a man named Noah was born—the one who built the big boat called the Ark.

After the great flood, Noah's son Shem had children, and so did their children. Many, many generations later, a man named Abraham was born. God made Abraham a beautiful promise:

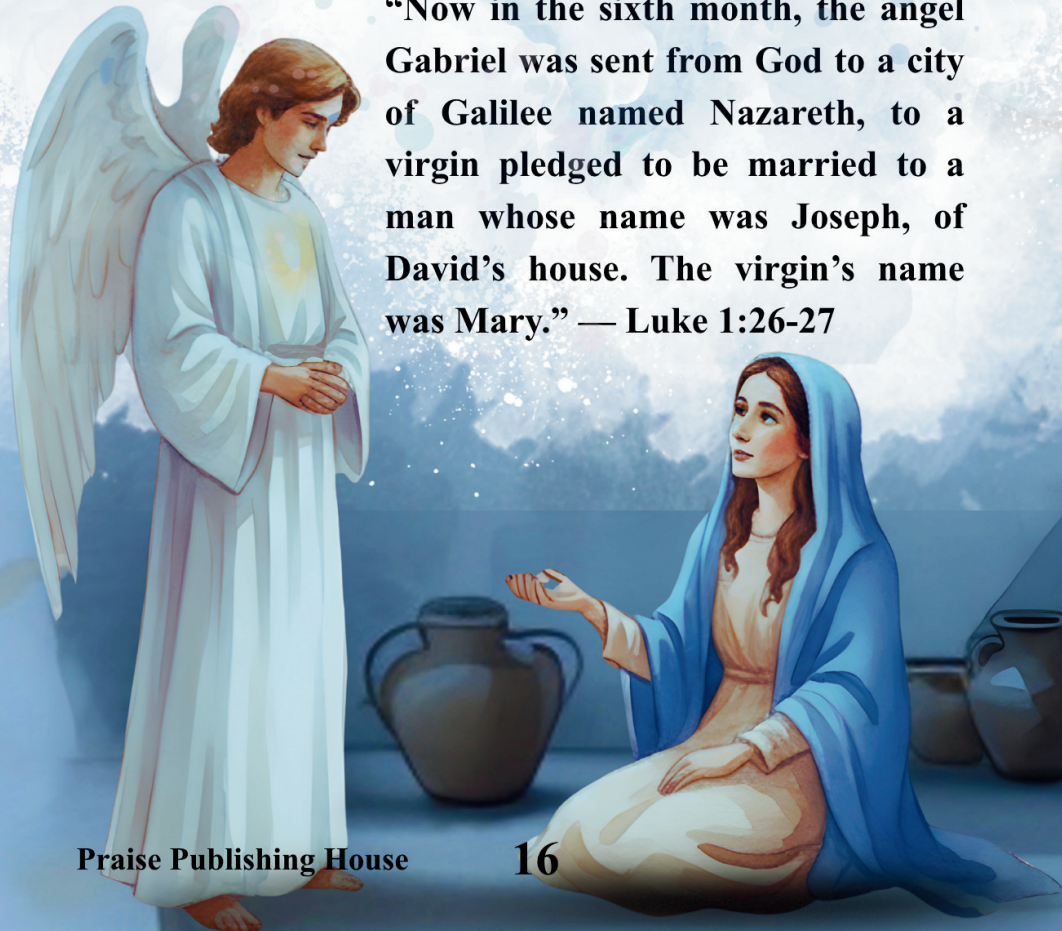

“Through your family, all the nations of the earth will be blessed.” (Genesis 22:18)

Chapter 3

A Promise to a Girl

It was a quiet day in the small town of Nazareth. In a simple home, a young woman named Mary was going about her chores. She was engaged to a man named Joseph, who was from the family of King David. Mary didn't know it yet, but heaven was about to visit her.

“Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph, of David's house. The virgin's name was Mary.” — Luke 1:26-27

Mary looked up—and her heart stopped.

Before her stood a glowing figure. It was Gabriel, the very same angel who had visited Zechariah.

Gabriel smiled and greeted her:

“Rejoice, you highly favored one! The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women!” — Luke 1:28

Mary froze. She had never heard words like this before. What did this mean? Why was an angel calling her favored?

“But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of greeting this might be.” — Luke 1:29

Gabriel's voice was full of peace and promise.

“Don't be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.” — Luke 1:30

“Behold, you will conceive in your womb and give birth to a son, and shall name him ‘Jesus.’” — Luke 1:31

Chapter 4

A Visit of Joy

Not long after the angel Gabriel left, Mary packed her things and hurried into the hills of Judea.

She had just learned the greatest news of her life—she would be the mother of the Son of God.

But Gabriel had also told her something else:

her cousin Elizabeth, who was very old, was going to have a baby too! Mary needed to see her.

“Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah, and entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.” — Luke 1:39-40

The moment Mary walked through the door and called out her greeting, something incredible happened.

“When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.” — Luke 1:41

Elizabeth placed her hands on her belly and began to speak with joy and wonder:

“She called out with a loud voice, and said, ‘Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!’” — Luke 1:42

“Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?” — Luke 1:43

Even the baby growing inside Elizabeth—who would become John the Baptist—leaped for joy when Mary came near.

Elizabeth continued, her voice filled with awe:

“For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy!” — Luke 1:44

Then she looked into Mary’s eyes with deep faith and spoke.

Chapter 8

Heaven Sings on Earth

Outside of Bethlehem, on a quiet hillside, a group of shepherds watched over their flocks. The stars twinkled above. The sheep dozed peacefully. The only sound was the wind moving gently through the grass.

“There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.” —

Luke 2:8

The shepherds were used to silence. But this night was unlike any other.

Suddenly, the sky split open with light—bright and warm, yet not from the sun or moon.

“Behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.” — Luke 2:9

Chapter 12

Visitors from Afar

Far from Bethlehem, across deserts and rivers, mountains and valleys, lived Wise men who studied the stars. They were called Magi, and they came from the East.

One night, they saw something unusual—a bright star rising in the sky. It wasn't like any other star they had ever seen. It felt like a message from heaven.
